SUBJECT : Research Advocacy on Higher Education

DATE : July 16, 1998

- The Commission on Higher Education (CHED) through the National Higher Education Research Agenda (NHERA) upholds, maintains, and sustains the promotion of research in higher education.
- The two interesting features of the NIERA, i.e. (a) call for research proposals within CHED priorities/ specifications and regional needs, not. (b) the allocation of a substantial amount of money for priorities of the priorities of the substantial amount of money for sumber of higher education institutions (HEI's) to submit research proposals for possible funding.
- 3. There is a felt need, however, to encourage more proponents to submit research proposals based on CHED priorities/specifications and regional concerns. In view thereof, the Commission will conduct a series of conference workshops nationwide specifically to:
 - a) intensify the information dissemination about the rationale, mechanics and requirements for availing research funding assistance;
 - b) conduct an orientation/training in the technical preparation of research proposals within CHED and regional priorities based on the NHERA Research Application Guide; and

- c) provide a forum for enhancing team building and establishing networking/linkages between and among HBIs in the different regions of the country in undertaking research on higher education.
